JUDGMENT

Petitioner has approached this Court challenging Ext.P3. Learned counsel for the petitioner submits that since there was no stay order in the matter, in all probability, the sale of the petitioner's property would have taken place, leading to the realisation of the amount due from the petitioner. In such circumstances, I do not think it necessary to go into the merits of the matter in this Original Petition. However, granting libterty to the petitioner to approach this Court should occasion arise, this Original Petition is disposed of.
